NYtimes.com Access Step by Step Directions for NSCC Members

Step 1: Go to the library’s home page: https://www.nscc.edu/library.

Step 2: Click on Find Articles. Scroll down the A-Z list and click on New York Times Website Access.

Step 3: If you're off campus, log in with your myNSCC credentials. If you're on campus, skip to Step 4.

Step 4: After signing in you should see the NYTimes.com Group Pass page. Click “Create an account.” If you’ve registered with NYTimes.com in the past, click “Log in to continue.”
Step 5: Create a new profile on NYTimes.com by entering your email address as username, and creating a password OR enter your personal and pre-existing NYTimes.com log in.

Step 6: You should now be advanced to the screen below. Note that this screen tells you when your NYTimes.com access expires. Click on the blue button “Go to NYTimes.com” to start your pass.

Step 7: You should now see the NYTimes.com home page. Do not sign out, so NYTimes.com remembers your credentials on your personal device. Note: If working from a public computer, please do sign out. Your NYTimes.com account may be signed into from any computer using the same email and password you set up.
Step 8: Confirm that you have a pass associated with Nashville State. Click on “My Account”

Final note: If someone selects “cancel,” it will detach his or her pass from the NSCC main group pass account with unlimited access to NYTimes.com. This means your access will be limited to 10 articles a month. Don’t press cancel!
